Santa's Workshop 2008 was a big success with all craft booths reporting strong sales. The Fort Crook Gift Shop was no exception taking in $300. The Fort Crook Cooking Team did very well, too. Over $600 worth of soup, baked potatoes with fixing's, chili dogs and nachos with cheese, pies, cookies and soft drinks were sold to hungry shoppers. It was a great start to the yuletide season with everyone getting into the holiday spirit.
