Had a moment of silence for all who sacrificed their lives at Pearl Harbor.

Guests:

Announcements: The water has been shut off at the museum for winter.

Minutes read—Motion to approve minutes as read made by Harry. Tim made 2nd. Motion carries.

Treasurer's report—Report read by Carrie. Motion to approve treasurer's report made by Doreen. Arleen made 2nd. Motion carries. We would like a running total of the wagon funds.

Old Business—

Curator's report—Veronica is coming in periodically to check things and keep up with correspondence.

I.T. report—Everything is going along smoothly. Harry would like to have a little traffic to the FCHS website so it updates daily. He put a banner on the website saying we are closed and when we will open again.

Wagon report—They will be going through boards to fit under the wagon.

Giving Tuesday-We received $1,270.07 from Giving Tuesday. Thank you cards for all who donated will go out soon.

Pole Barn report-A motion was made by Arleen to have Tim Glaze be the permit signee. Harry made 2nd. Motion carries. Pat is still looking for someone to dig the rock.

Jailhouse roof- Nothing more to add to last meeting's update. Jay Keadle may have time to do the project.

Russell Callison Estate- Negotiations within the family as to where they want monies to go to.

Gun collection- Not interested in the gun collection after speaking with the owner of the collection.

School bell, Rocky Comfort school bell- The Duncans would like to donate the Rocky Comfort school bell. It is ready to be picked up. Where the bell will be placed will be discussed at a later time.

Mr. Jansen's letter- A copy of the letter was emailed to board members. The letter was explanatory and diplomatic. There have been numerous attempts to have all peoples in our area participate in Pioneer Day and other events to no avail.

New Business-

Tri Counties Bank will be charging to make deposits. The fee is minimal, but still a fee. The fee is .30 per hundred dollars deposited after $5,000 in the same deposit.

The church renters showed proof of insurance.

Meeting adjourned 7:46 pm

Respectfully submitted by Peggi Hubbard
